A first floor purpose built flat in this well sought after development only a couple of minutes walk from the High Street. Having undergone a general tidy up the flat has been decorated, new floor coverings have been laid within the last year and the whole is offered TO LET on an unfurnished lease, initial term of six months, however a long lease is available to a suitable applicant. Although first floor there is a stair lift from the Hall which would make the flat suitable as a retirement property. Car parking is available on site. Fir Lodge Court faces onto South Parade, the flat is to the rear of the building which with the double glazing make it a lovely quiet setting. Heating is electric night store heaters. Available now ! - occupation September.
