A ground floor end plot 2 bedroom purpose built flat within what is proving to be one of Northallerton's premier residential locations. Just off Romanby Green, the development is called Ainderby Gardens and vehicle access is between the Golden Lion public house and the small supermarket. Excellent specification as is expected of a modern property, double glazing, central heating (electric powered) and unusual for this design the lounge is separate from the kitchen. Available on an unfurnished letting initial term of six months with longer term available for a suitable applicant. General landscaped site includes parking to the rear each flat with it own designated plot. Viewing available now.
