A first floor flat located within this purpose built development on the southern end of town. Excellent specification and now a well established and sought after development the flats (about 30 in total) are located close to the Mainline Railway Station, just opposite County Hall and only a short walk to the High Street itself. Double glazed they are very spacious throughout, heating is electric and they have well equipped Kitchens and Bathrooms. This property is located at First Floor level (left hand side—middle) facing County Hall itself. The site is well managed with landscaped gardens, ample car parking (not designated) and is handy for most major employers on the southern end of town.
